

Rochelle Silas graduated from UCLA in 1962 with a degree in Business Education focusing on accounting and management. She brings to the Foundation Assisting Seniors over 25 years of law firm management and consulting experience. Beginning as a law firm consultant, she joined a patent, trademark and copyright law firm as administrator. Twenty-two years and 220 employees later, Rochelle retired as the firm's Director of Administration. The firm successfully grew from one office to eight in five states in 22 years.